Five Paratroopers Killed in High Wind

About Town

And Country
By TIMOTHEUS T.
1898 Anniversary Edition Full of City's History

HISTORY DEPT.: For a while now, let's go all the way back to sixty years ago right here in Harrisburg. I have before me an anniversary edition of the Harrisburg Chronicle published Oct. 28, 1898, by J. J. Pickett and J. W. Richardson. Mr. Richardson was the father of Miss Mary Richardson, Daily Register bookkeeper.

This edition is full of history. Full of stories and full of pictures. Two present residents of our community are pictured—Atty. Ownley Furman and Homer Collier. The paper was brought to The Register office by Miss Bess Pemberton.

Here is what the Chronicle said in big, bold letters about Harrisburg, then a town of 3,000 persons:

"Harrisburg. Backed by a rich farming country and fruit growing territory second to none on earth. The very center of the greatest and most profitable coal fields in the middle west. Surrounded by vast belts of desirable timber for wood working manufactures. A city of schools and churches, populated by people of refinement and culture."

Did you know we had a folding bed factory here in 1898? Rev. W. S. Blackman was the proprietor. Here is what the Chronicle had to say about it:

"An industry of multi-importance to the city is the Harrisburg Furniture and Manufacturing company. It is one of the recent additions to the factorial equipage, being established October last. The factory confines itself to the manufacture of the ingenious Sanor folding bed, a patent of recent date; one that far exceeds anything in the novelty line of folding beds; an article that cannot but elicit admiration in every household."

"There are many folding beds on the market that have no virtue more than their compactness and many are offered that do not even possess the favor of this one redeeming feature, and in consequence..."

More Than 100 Hospitalized After Mass Jump by 1,300 at Ft. Campbell

FT. CAMPBELL, Ky. (UP)—Freak gusts of wind were blamed today for the deaths of five paratroopers, fatally dragged by their billowing parachutes in a mass jump of 1,300 men.

More than 100 others were hospitalized after the jump Wednesday. The injured and dead all landed at the extreme northern edge of the big drop zone where gusts dragged helpless paratroopers over rocky terrain, dotted with trees.

The accident happened during the 101st Airborne Division's war game exercise "Eagle Wing."

Some of the dragged paratroopers were traveling at such speed that spectators were unable to overtake their chutes and cut them loose.

Maj. L. A. Breault, information officer for the division, said five of the men were dead on arrival at the base hospital.

The Defense Department at Washington identified the victims as Pfc. Michael E. Robles, son of Michael Robles of New York City; Pfc. Alfonso L. Martinez, son of Mrs. Julia P. Martinez of Santa Fe, N. M.; Pvt. Elliott F. Morley, son of Mrs. Olga Roberts Morley of Miami, Fla.; SSG Carl G. Payne, husband of Mrs. Phyllis Ann Payne of Clarksville, Tenn.; and Pfc. Danny J. Ruffin, son of Danny J. Ruffin Sr. of Hamilton, Ohio.

Breault said 137 men were hospitalized but that none of these appeared to be in critical condition. "There were a few broken bones," he said, "but most of them should have cuts and bruises and should be released within a few days."

Maj. Gen. W. C. Westmoreland,

division commander, made the jump with his men, his 70th. And like them he wrestled with a ballooning parachute.

Westmoreland announced that a full investigation would be conducted. But he said it was apparent that the jump safety officer, who gave the paratroopers a go-ahead to jump, could not be held responsible for the accident.

Officers said another jump scheduled here Saturday will be carried out unless weather conditions force a postponement.

Mother of 11 Asks $110,000

MOUNT CARROLL, Ill. (UP)—A mother of 11 children has charged in a $110,000 alienation suit that an illicit love affair led to the suicide of her husband Feb. 28.

Mrs. Elizabeth Scace, the widow and mother, charged that her husband, Austin, had a love affair with Mrs. Mildred Jones, Mount Carroll, in 1957.

Mrs. Scace, who filed the alienation of affections suit against Mrs. Jones Wednesday in Circuit Court, said that her husband was so infatuated with Mrs. Jones that he moved her into the Scace farm home.

Scace, 43, killed himself with a shotgun after he and Mrs. Jones had been arrested on adultery charges last February. The case was never heard in court because of Scace's death.

Mrs. Scace alleged the illicit love affair reached a climax when Mrs. Jones moved into the farm home near here which was operated by Scace on a tenant basis. She charged Scace continued to have illicit relations with Mrs. Jones.

The widow alleged that her 11 minor children were deprived of support and their father's affection by the suicide and should receive from the court a judgment of $10,000 each.

William Kimbro, 82, Dies at Ridgway

William "Cal" Kimbro, 82, a retired Gallatin county farmer, died in his home at Ridgway, Wednesday night. He is survived by his wife Molly, three sons and two daughters. The body is in the care of the Smith and Edwards funeral home of Ridgway and funeral plans have not been completed.

Congressman Asks Probe of Paratroop Tragedy

WASHINGTON (UP)—A member of the House Armed Services Committee said today the committee should investigate a Ft. Campbell, Ky. paratrooper tragedy which claimed five lives and injured 137 other jumpers.

Rep. Walter Norblad (R-Ore.) said it should be determined if "negligence" was involved in Wednesday's death-marked mass drop.

"I'm not trying to place blame," Norblad told the United Press, "but a tragedy of this magnitude is worth checking into. There is an error of some kind obviously involved."

The congressman said he thought an investigation might be delayed by the current hearings on Defense Department reorganization.

Tornado Funnels Swirl Across Areas in Illinois

By United Press

Tornado funnels and severe thunderstorms swirled across sections of Illinois early today, but the state escaped serious damage from the storm front.

Ground observers reported two twisters near Belleville and two tornadoes were observed on the Scott Air Force Base radar scope in the Belleville vicinity early today, but both apparently evaporated without striking populated areas.

Heavy rains during the night deposited as much as one inch of water in sections of northwestern Chicago, according to the weather bureau, and the St. Louis area received nearly one-half inch.

The Weather Bureau began issuing a series of severe weather advisories about midnight, warning of possible tornadoes, but the last alert expired at 4:15 a. m., with no reports of major damage.

High winds uprooted trees and downed some power lines at Marion and Mount Vernon, but weathermen said the damage was not caused by a twister.

Many persons in the tornado-conscious area spent a sleepless night.

Heavy hail was reported at Mount Vernon.

At Centralia, some tree limbs and telephone lines were knocked down by wind gusts which reached a velocity of 62 miles an hour. Almost 3 of an inch of rain fell. A tree fell across Ill. 149 near Cambria in Williamson county and struck a car. Authorities said the highway was blocked, but the driver was not injured.

Mrs. Elmer Shaver Dies at Eldorado

The body will lie in state at the Bean and Tanner funeral home in Eldorado until the funeral at 2 p. m. Sunday in the First Baptist church of Eldorado. The Rev. Muriel Combs, McLeansboro, will officiate assisted by the Rev. Marvin Richardson, Whittington and the Rev. Eddie Hatfield, pastor of the church. Burial will be in the Wesley cemetery east of Eldorado.

Saline County SIU Alumni to Meet at Junior High Friday

The Saline County chapter of Southern Illinois University Alumni association will hold its regular spring meeting Friday, 7:30 p. m., in the Little Theater of the Harrisburg Junior high school.

The speaker will be Miss Lillian Haddad, native of Syria, it has been announced by Dwight Karnes, president of the Saline County Alumni club.

Miss Haddad is now attending SIU on a scholarship. She is a psychology major and has attended both British and American schools prior to coming to this country. Her father is a visiting professor of Near Eastern History at Bowdoin College in Brunswick, Maine. He is a member of the faculty at the Syrian University in Damascus.

Also on the program will be a film, "The People's University," in color and sound describing Southern Illinois University and the area it serves.

Following the program refreshments will be served.

Mr. Karnes invites all SIU alumni to attend the meeting Friday night.

Warns Russia May Soon Be Top Coal Producer

PITTSBURGH (UP)—A coal research expert warned today that it is likely that Soviet Russia soon will take over from the United States as the world's biggest coal producer.

Dr. H. J. Rose, vice president and consultant of Bituminous Coal Research Inc., said that on a recent tour of Europe he found more than 10,000 persons engaged in coal research and development, "more than four times the number so engaged in the United States."

"More than half of all European coal research personnel are in Soviet Russia," he said, "which has a crash program to develop 309 new coal mines with an additional capacity of 265 million short tons by 1960."

"It is therefore likely that Russia soon will displace the United States as the world's leading producer of coal."

Speaking at the annual meeting of the BCI, the national research association for bituminous coal, Rose declared that it is of urgent importance that adequate support be provided for coal research and development in the U. S.

Rose said that all of the governments of Europe have come to the conclusion that the economic health of that continent in the next generation will depend fundamentally on coal, which at present represents 96 per cent of Europe's fuel production. About 84 per cent of U. S. fuel resources consist of coal, he said, so this country must learn to make the best use of the coal it consumes.

The CIPS board of directors took the action Wednesday, and announced that Thompson will continue as division manager.

Stirewalt, vice president for purchasing and stores; H. N. Parker, vice president in charge of finance and secretary; and George R. Cook, treasurer and assistant secretary.

Broderick also was elected to the board's executive committee. The board also declared a dividend of 42 cents per share on the company's common stock, payable in June to stockholders of record May 2.

Rebuff Eisenhower

Senate-House Conferees Agree To Four-Cent Postage Rate

WASHINGTON (UP)—Congress appeared today likely to put its seal of approval on a four-cent postage rate for both local and out-of-town letters.

A Senate-House conference committee rebuffed President Eisenhower Wednesday by rejecting the administration's proposal for a five-cent rate for out-of-town letters. Both House and Senate bills provide a four-cent local mail rate. The House bill sets the same one-cent increase for out-of-town mail; the Senate bill provides for a five-cent out-of-town rate.

Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney (D-Okl.) said chances were good the Senate would back the compromise on the House figure. Monroney led the unsuccessful fight against the five-cent rate which was passed by the Senate in February by a vote of 49 to 42. He said senators found opposition to the boost over the present three-cent postage during the Easter recess.

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield issued a statement saying the penny cut in the administration proposal "would scuttle President Eisenhower's proposed two billion dollar postal modernization program" that would provide jobs for thousands of workers.

He said the action was "a temporary victory for the large business users of the mails" who have benefited by low postal rates. "The fight to stop this unconscionable raid in the treasury will continue," he said.

The conference committee was to meet again today to attempt to complete work on the long-delayed bill. Final Senate and House action would follow, presumably within a few days.

The President had opposed a pay increase of more than 6 1/2 per cent for the nation's 500,000 postal workers. The Senate bill provided for an average 12 1/2 per cent pay boost, based on a 7 1/2 per cent permanent raise plus temporary cost-of-living adjustment. The conferees Wednesday agreed on a 7 1/2 per cent raise plus temporary increases on a percentage basis for the first seven classifications of postal workers.

Kerr Arranges Meeting

Delegation to Confer with Gov. Stratton on Extension of Rt. 142

State Rep. Gordon E. Kerr of Brookport has arranged for a delegation to meet at 11:30 a. m. next Tuesday with Gov. William Stratton at Springfield regarding the proposed extension of Route 142 from Equality through the Garden of the Gods area and connect with Route 34 below Herod.

Announcement of the appointment was received today by George Scherrer of Shawneetown, one of those advocating the primary highway.

The same delegation that conferred last week at Carbondale with William MacLeod, district highway engineer, is expected to go to Springfield, where Mr. Scherrer said they would be joined by Cong. Kenneth J. Gray.

Cong. Gray, before the Carbondale conference, advised Scherrer that the road could be constructed with funds provided in the emergency road bill sponsored by Gray and Senator Gore and already signed by President Eisenhower.

This act provides that the federal government pay 70 per cent and the state 30 per cent of the cost and that the state can borrow the 30 per cent from the federal government until 1961 or 1962. Since the act is an emergency road bill to provide jobs, all road contracts must be let by Dec. 1, 1958, and completed by Dec. 1, 1959.

At the Carbondale conference, which Mr. Scherrer said had been

Gen. Schriever Says Test Not Entire Success

Navy Readying Rocket for Fourth U. S. Satellite

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UP)—The Air Force ballistic missile commander said today he doubts the new ICBM nose cone fired far out over the Atlantic Wednesday night will ever be recovered.

Maj. Gen. Bernard A. Schriever, the missile chief, told the House Space Committee in Washington it will be a couple of days before there is a complete evaluation of the combined Thor-Vanguard missile test firing but that "as of now we have not recovered the nose cone and I don't think we ever will."

Schriever said that failure to recover the nose cone means that the test was not a "complete success."

The Air Force blasted the towering forerunner of its moon rocket into the sky here Wednesday night, primarily to try out a new idea for getting a nose cone back through the atmosphere from space.

Preliminary unofficial estimates were that the rocket, aimed at the target area in the ocean 6,300 miles (statute miles), may have gone only about 3,600 miles.

Meanwhile the Navy was readying a complete Vanguard rocket for a try soon to put into orbit around the earth a fourth U. S. satellite—a 20-inch, 21 1/2-pound sphere designed to measure and report back on X-ray activity around the globe.

Schriever shied away from answering committee questions on how far the Thor-Vanguard combination rocket actually was fired.

He said scientists did get some data from the missile by radio during its flight as far as Antigua in the West Indies.

Mrs. Stratton Honored in Ceremonies at SIU

CARBONDALE, Ill. (UP)—Gov. Stratton arrived here in a heavy rainstorm today to attend ceremonies honoring his wife at Southern Illinois University.

Mrs. Stratton will be honored as "leader of the year" by the Southern Illinois Women's Club today. She will receive the award, consisting of a series of triangles, designed by the SIU art department.

Vera M. Binks, director of the state Department of Registration and Education, received the first award last year.

Mrs. Stratton also will unveil a 25-foot bronze and marble plaque in the university library, listing the university's objectives.

Also to be honored today is Mrs. Elbert Fulkerson, Carbondale, who was recently named "Illinois mother of the year."

An estimated 350 women from southern Illinois are attending the ceremonies. They will be taken on tours of the campus.

A Toothsome Problem

Editorial By Bruce Blossat
Oh, the complexities of this modern, high-speed age.
When is a sandwich not a sandwich?

That is the question that the International Air Transport Association must decide if it would avert a full-blown international incident.

According to a U. S. airline, several foreign lines are guilty of unfair practices by serving major meals under the guise of open-faced sandwiches on their low-cost transatlantic flights. According to IATA rules, only sandwiches are allowed on cut-rate flights.

Three slices of roast beef, roasted onions, sliced pickle, lettuce heart and carrots—with a slice of bread. Is this a sandwich or a meal?

Decisions, decisions, decisions.

Time Running Out to Protect Against Polio

Another polio season is almost upon us and time is running out for more than 40 million children and adults who still have not been protected against polio.

Saline county faces the possibility of a polio epidemic this summer, in spite of all the Salk vaccine available.

These warnings were issued today by A. M. Hetherington, chairman of the Saline County chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, which today began an all-out, all-age polio vaccination program in cooperation with local health and medical authorities.

Mr. Hetherington explained that wherever a sufficient number of unvaccinated people exist outbreaks of paralytic polio still may occur.

"The vaccine has to be in people's arms before it does any good," the chapter chairman said.
"For the first time in three years,
since the vaccine was licensed it is available to anyone who wants
it. There are no age restrictions, no questions of supply, no logistics problems."

"About the only problem we have this summer are the people who think they are safe because many other people, especially their own children, have been vaccinated.
This is a mistake. Medical authorities agree that the only way an individual can acquire polio protection is to get his own Salk shots."

"If there are youngsters in your house, you owe it to yourself and to them to get yourself vaccinated," Hetherington stated. "Even if you are over 40, it makes sense to do so, now that supplies are ample."

"See your physician. Free vaccine can be obtained from the health department," he added.

Hetherington answered the following questions in urging a polio
vaccination roundup:

Can adults get polio? Yes, they can and they do.

Are parents safe from polio if their children have been vaccinated? No. You must be vaccinated yourself to be protected.

Are you safe if your neighbors have been vaccinated? No and for the same reason as above.

Are you safe from polio if you've had one shot? Two shots? Not necessarily. One shot is better than none. Two shots are better than one. But for maximum assurance of protection, all three Salk shots are required.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

★ EDSON IN WASHINGTON ★

Ike Would Make Research Boss Important on Team

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Most important new job created in President Eisenhower's proposed Department of Defense reorganization would be that of "Director of Defense Research and Engineering." It would be raised to the status of the present secretaries of Army, Navy and Air Force.

This would put the new man on the third level of the Pentagon layer cake, just below Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy—to whom he would report directly—and Deputy Secretary of Defense Donald Quarles.

It is notable that the new job carries the title of "director." This is taken to mean "boss."

The job would replace that of assistant secretary of defense for engineering and research. It is now held by Dr. Paul Darwin Foote, 70, a retired vice president of Gulf Oil.

Dr. Foote is now one of eight assistant secretaries of defense who have limited authority. The new bill cuts the number to seven.

WHAT THIS TOP JOB SHIFT
emphasizes is the increasing importance attached to military research and development.

One other way to gauge it is bud-getwise. Five years ago, total appropriations for R. and D., as it's called, was a billion dollars. This year it is 1.8 billion and for next year 2.25 billion have been asked.
With unexpended carryovers, R.
and D. is now a five-billion-dollar
annual operation.

In his last press conference,
President Eisenhower said he thought all research money should be appropriated to the secretary of defense. This would enable him
"to put all those very, very expensive programs where they could best be carried out by the several services."

This was what the famous Rockefeller committee report of last January recommended.

But it does not seem to be provided for in President Eisenhower's
new draft legislation.

THIS BILL WOULD MAKE
the new director of research principal adviser to secretary of defense.
It would authorize him to "supervise" all research. It would let him "direct" all research the secretary deems to require centralized management.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Diefenbacher, D. D.
(Written for NEA Service)

ENTHUSIASM is being emphasized a great deal. Almost every magazine we read plays up our need for enthusiasm for health, for progress, for work, for getting a job, for life, for service,
for God and for matters of lesser importance. If we are not enthuslastic we shall become lethargic,

lazy or indifferent.

Those who spend their enthusiasm on gambling, speeding on the highways, stealing, killing and sin will lose the fortune of life itself. They will find themselves without moral or spiritual assets and will end up with bankrupt souls.

There must be a coupling of enthusiasm with the higher goals of life if heaven is to be achieved
at the end of mortal existence.
Enthusiasm in itself is only a stage in man's propulsion through life. If it is coupled with the desire to do God's will we can expect to rise easily to the rim of God's eternity.

quence it may be possible without giving the Sanor bed careful attention to the detriment of the reader and manufacturer it will become the subject of confusion with non-meritable wares. (That's what it says).

"The Sanor bed is a model of perfection in compactness, durability and beauty, a combination piece of furniture filling every demand of a wardrobe, dresser, writing desk, book case and non-collapse bed."

"Its simplicity guarantees durability and the introduction of one bed in a single neighborhood means a general demand from that immediate section . . .

"In conclusion of this brief note of a worthy subject, we say to home people it is a duty of theirs to patronize a home industry, and especially should this be observed when it is an evident fact that no factory in the land has goods to offer that can anywhere compare with the Sanor folding bed."

Wright Favors Primaries with No Affiliation

By RAYMOND R. COFFEY
United Press Staff Correspondent
SPRINGFIELD — Warren E.
Wright says he favors a change in the election law to make it unnecessary for voters to declare their party affiliation in a primary, and thereby he once again has parted ways with Gov. Stratton.

Wright was in Champaign this week to ride in a motorcade headed by a calipso, shake hands and thank the voters who helped him upset Stratton's organization in the April 8 primary with a victory over Louis E. Beckman for the Republican state treasurer nomination.

While there he said he favored the election law change to permit voters to ballot in a primary without disclosing their party affiliation.

"We boast of the American privilege of voting as we please," Wright said, "but when we vote in a primary we have to go in and tell a clerk what our politics are."
"I know this prevents many people from voting in a primary and I believe it should be changed,"
he said.

Stratton is opposed to any such change. Among his reasons, he believes it would weaken party responsibility.

Opponents of such a change also argue that it would make it possible for members of one party to cross over and vote in the other party's primary with the purpose of trying to nominate a weak candidate and that could more easily be defeated in the general election.

But Wright dismissed this argument. "I think Stephen Mitchell (former national Democratic chairman) answered that when he pointed out that Stratton couldn't send enough Republicans into a Republican primary to nominate a weak candidate," Wright said in apparent reference to his April 8 victory.

While in Champaign Wright also referred again to his difference with Stratton on the matter of the "judicial reform" amendment to be voted on in November.

Stratton is supporting the amendment. But Wright said "the governor claims the party is committed to it, but no one has committed me."

He said "I don't know that there is anything wrong with our present judges, in fact I think most of them are pretty good" and he indicated he still would have to be "shown" the merits in the judicial reform amendment.

Wright said he has not heard directly from Stratton since the primary. But despite their opposite stands on court reform and the primary law, Wright said he is confident Stratton will give him
full support in November.

"I wouldn't be surprised if Stratton worked harder now than he ever has before," Wright said.

Senate to Schedule Hearings on House Passed Bill for School Aid

WASHINGTON — Chairman Lister Hill said today the Senate Labor Committee will give "expeditious" treatment to a House-passed bill providing more aid than President Eisenhower wants for schools crowded with federal workers' children.

The Alabama Democrat said the committee, which handles education matters, will schedule hearings soon on the measure approved Wednesday by the House. In approving the bill the House ignored an 80-million-dollar cutback recommended by the President and authorized aid at 207 million dollars annually—about the present level.

Hill said he, too, favors maintaining the current rate of aid to "federally impacted" schools heavily attended by children of federal workers and servicemen.

The school aid program has been in effect since 1950. The new bill would extend it at least until June 30, 1961.

The House shouted approval of the bill after it overwhelmingly rejected an effort by Rep. James Roosevelt (D-Calif.) to write in an anti-segregation amendment.

Roosevelt left his bed at Bethesda, Md., Naval hospital to offer his amendment. He has been undergoing treatment for an ulcer.

His provision would have denied federal aid to any school district that had done nothing to comply with the 1954 Supreme Court ruling against school segregation.

Of the total 207 million dollars authorized by the bill, 140 million would be for operating expenses and 67 million for construction in the 3,300 school districts eligible for the aid.

The committee previously rejected

Plan Merger of Mobilization Office And Civil Defense

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower sent Congress today a plan to merge the Office of Defense Mobilization and the Civil Defense Administration into a new office of defense and civilian mobilization.

The merger will become effective July 1 unless either the House or Senate disapproves of it within 60 days.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said he did not know whether Defense Mobilization or Civil Defense Administrator Leo A. Hoegh would be retained in "top spots" in the new agency.

Global War Threat On Increase: LeMay

Gen. Taylor Differs
In Address at
Convention of ANPA

NEW YORK (AP)—Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, Air Force vice chief of staff, said today the threat of global atomic war is increasing "with every passing day."

Army and Navy chiefs contended, however, that nuclear "stalemate" between the United States and Russia makes limited or brush fire wars more likely than all-out conflict.

Sharp differences on the threat America faces and the weapons it needs were unfolded in speeches at the annual convention of the American Newspaper Publishers Assn.

LeMay, long-time commander of U. S. retaliatory bomber forces, said America faces a "savage, uphill battle . . . day in and year out" to stay ahead and deter a Russian-launched nuclear holocaust.

Some Different Opinions

He outlined some of the new weapons being developed for the Strategic Air Command, such as the B70 bomber which will go 2,000 miles an hour, and the "minute man" ballistic missile which he said will have "startling potential."

"There is no threat to the security of the United States that can remotely compare with the ever present possibility of general war," he said.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Army chief of staff, told the publishers, on the other hand, that the United States was "probably justified in assuming that neither side would voluntarily start a general atomic war."

He said "atomic parity" with both sides able to destroy each other, brings about "mutual deterrents."

As a result, Taylor said, the Communists are more likely to start limited wars and nibbling aggressions to gain their end.

Adm. H. D. Felt, vice chief of naval operations, said the free world would be in "very good" shape to deter global war if it kept its reprisal forces relatively invulnerable—chiefly by dispersing at sea aboard aircraft carriers and submarines.

The three speeches were a highlight of the final meeting of the 72nd annual ANPA convention.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon speaks tonight at the annual banquet of the ANPA Bureau of Advertising.

George N. Dale, chairman of the ANPA special standing committee handling labor relations, told the convention that while increasing costs are compelling publishers to adopt new and improved printing equipment and processes "newspaper unions have been reluctant to accept improvements in production."

Urges Study of Plan To Change Route For Federal Highway

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. William G. Bray (R-Ind.) has called for a "thorough study" of a proposal by Illinois and Indiana governors to change the route for a federal highway across the two states.

The road would link St. Louis and Louisville, Ky. Bray said Wednesday he would "insist upon a proper study" before any decision is made to change the original plans to follow U. S. 50 and U. S. 150.

Boy, 6, Admits Kicking 5-Week- Old Girl to Death

KINGSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—Police Chief B. D. Condon said today that a 6-year-old boy had confessed taking 5-week-old Sandra Ann Carrick out of her crib and kicking her to death.

Condon refused to give the boy's name and said the boy does not know Sandra Ann is dead. He said the boy's parents do not intend to tell him he is a murderer until they have consulted a psychiatrist.

Nor do Sandra Ann's parents know that the boy has confessed kicking their daughter. They left Wednesday for Oshkosh, Wis., to bury her.

The father, David Leroy Carrick, is stationed at Kingsville Naval Air Station.

The boy went in to play with the baby while her mother was hanging up clothes in the back yard.

"While he was playing with her in the crib he hurt her," Condon said. "He became panicky, wrapped diapers around her, took her outside and kicked her."

85-Year-Old Great- Grandmother to Wed Fiance, 29

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP)—Mrs. Laura Belle Wilson, 85-year-old great-grandmother, and her 29-year-old fiance said Wednesday night they will be married by the mayor of Bloomington in a stylish hotel wedding ceremony.

Mrs. Wilson and her husband-to-be, Jim Bough, are scheduled to be married next Monday night in the Van Orman Hotel, the city's largest.

The couple said they called Democratic Mayor Thomas Lemon Wednesday night and asked him to officiate, explaining they had been "lifelong Democrats."

Lemon consented, they said. Hotel Manager Robert Thames said he talked with the couple Wednesday and he offered the hotel's plush Chatterbox Room for the ceremony and reception. Only members of the families will be invited to the wedding.

Thames said he was "greatly impressed by their sincerity."

Mrs. Wilson's bridal gown and trousseau were offered by department store manager R. D. Smith, who said he would make a special trip to find something appropriate. Other Bloomington residents have offered household furnishings.

Bough intends to support his bride through his newspaper deliveries and handy work.

Israel Celebrates 10th Anniversary With Display of Its Military Might

JERUSALEM, Israel (AP)—Israel celebrates its tenth anniversary of hazardous statehood today with a massive display of military might that could touch off a new border clash with uneasy Jordan.

Jordan has accused Israel of a "serious intended breach" of the 1949 armistice agreement by bringing in heavy armor and troops for the parade, and matched the Israelis gun for gun and man for man.

The United Nations warned both nations against any incident that could touch off another of the border shooting scrapes that have threatened many times to flare into open warfare.

The Israeli sector of the divided city of Jerusalem was in a holiday mood and the winding streets were filled with thousands of tourists who turned main streets into a public carnival.

The singing and dancing which started Wednesday continued through the night under the starry canopy of a brilliant fireworks display.

The flash and thunder of fireworks echoed by the Jordan-held walls of the old city of Jerusalem. It was a peaceful reenactment of the day ten years ago when six Arab armies invaded Palestine and Jewish Jerusalem came under heavy assault.

Israel proclaimed itself a state on May 14, 1948 according to the western calendar. The celebration falls on Friday according to the Jewish calendar but is being celebrated today because of the Jewish sabbath.

Fined

Herbert Syers of West Frankfort last night was fined $150 plus $13.20 costs when he pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated before Justice of the Peace O. L. Woods. He was arrested in Harrisburg by Chief of Police Ross Lane.

'Which Twin Is the Angel?' Find Out at HTHS Friday Night

Which twin is the angel? If you want to be sure, see "The Staring Match." Friday night, April 25, in Bonnell Gymnasium at 8:15. "The Staring Match," a two act fantasy drama is sponsored by local Thespian Troupe 16 and stars Ronnie and Donnie Henson as the "angels" in dispute.

Bill Humm is the skeptical farmer, Linus Hobbs; Ann Goebl is his religious wife, and Sara Sullivan is their daughter, Molly Mae. Howell Dean Colbert, the devout but bewildered preacher, Reverend Ashburn, tries desperately to lead his people in their decision concerning which is really the angel of the Lord. Others in the cast include Mickey Muge as Deacon Will Landis, Mary Jean Sisk as Miss Irma Davis, and Chuck Seten as George Wilson. Stephen Maszaros, Butch Burns, Paralee Vick, and Lynda Vaughn are the other townspeople.

The people of the drought stricken rural community are amazed and bewildered when their prayers for water are answered by not one, but two men, each claiming to be an angel of the Lord. You'll be sure to want to come to see how the people resolve their difficulty and obtain "a well as fresh as the sunup dew on a pretty morning in May, as deep as the love in a young bride's eyes and as sweet as the kiss of a little child."

Miss Buckman, the director,

In addition to the new officers named, the committeemen present were Halleck Jones, Jeff Williams, Paul Potter, George Sisk, Gilbert Stubbs, Norman Holmes, Dorcie Medlin, William Keasler and Clem Maloney.

Duke Snider, Hurt In 'Horseplay', Is Suspended

LOS ANGELES — Duke Snider, veteran hitting star of the Dodgers, was on suspension today as punishment for straining a tendon in his elbow while engaging in a bit of horseplay Wednesday night prior to his team's game with the Cubs.

Manager Walt Alston, irked because the injury forced him to remove Snider from the lineup and change his batting order after he had announced it, ordered Snider taken off the payroll "until he is in condition to play again."

Dr. Hal Wendler, team trainer, said the injury was a minor one that should not keep Snider out of the lineup for more than a day or two.

"I'll admit Don Zimmer and I were horsing around," Snider said after learning of his suspension, "but I hardly expected this sort of punishment."

The name "Leathernecks" for men of the Marine Corps came from a black leather stock issued as part of the early uniform. It was worn to protect a fighter from throat cuts.

Purkey Tosses 2-0 Shutout Against Burdette as Reds Defeat Braves

Giants Edge
Cards, 8-7; Cubs
Trip Dodgers, 7-6

By United Press
The winter deals that sent Bob Purkey to the Cincinnati Redlegs and Billy Martin to the Detroit Tigers have transformed two of last season's most disappointing teams into solid pennant contenders.

Both teams are off to fine starts compared with dismal showings at the same stage of 1957. The Redlegs have a 4-2 record compared to 2-4 last season and the Tigers are 6-3 contrasted to 2-6 last year.

Purkey, acquired from the Pittsburgh Pirates, turned in his second straight victory for the Redlegs Wednesday night and it was a "big one" because it was a 2-0 triumph over World Series hero Lew Burdette and the Milwaukee Braves. Burdette beat the Redlegs five times last season as the Braves ran up an 18-4 season margin over the fourth-place finishers.

Martin, obtained from Kansas City, smashed a double and two singles to lead a 13-hit attack that carried the Tigers to an 8-2 victory over the Athletics behind Paul Foytack's six-hitter. Martin, who's promised his ex-Yankee buddies good seats "for this year's World Series games in Detroit," is walloping a gaudy .378 for his new teammates.

Yankees Stopped
In other major developments: —The Washington Senators snapped the Yankees' six-game winning streak with a 5-4 triumph in 10 innings.

—Flame-thrower Herb Score struck out a season high of 13 batters as he pitched the Cleveland Indians to a 2-0 win over the Chicago White Sox.

—Jack Sanford, NL Rookie of the Year in 1957, hurled the Philadelphia Phillies to an 8-1 decision over the Pittsburgh Pirates.
